

POWERED BY DEXTRO ENERGY

Dextro Energy Carbo Mineral Drink

In a recent, independent sports nutrition test conducted and published by 220 Triathlon Magazine, Dextro Energy Carbo Mineral Drink was voted number one in its category by a panel of 10 athletes and a sports nutritionist. Dextro Energy's hypotonic, energy-electrolyte blend was touted for its perfect levels of carbs and sodium – essential elements for powering working muscles. Plus, it scored highest in flavour and ease of use. Dextro Energy Carbo Mineral Drink comes in two refreshing flavours: Red Orange and Fruit Mix.

Dextro Energy Liquid Gel

This carbohydrate concentrate contains tri-source carbohydrates for instant energy, direct to your blood stream. Why so rapid? It could have something to do with the amazing, fluid consistency of Dextro Energy Liquid Gels, unlike other sticky, unpalatable textures. In two delicious varieties: Lemon plus caffeine, and Orange with B vitamins, Dextro Energy Liquid Gel imparts a much needed energy surge during performance peaks – especially in the second set when you need a lift!

GO TO THE NEXT LEVEL WITH PRINCE

Your best defence is a fierce offense. Don't tiptoe around on the court – make your game about one thing and one thing only; pure, raw, explosive power. Athletes who arm themselves with one of the new Warrior series of racquets will take their game to their opponent by punishing the ball with screaming ground stroke winners, crisp volleys and booming serves.

Battle-ready and built for players who want to punish the ball, the new Prince Warrior 100 delivers raw power so you can dominate the match in any situation.
